Call for Submissions

Thursday 18th November 2010, Manchester Conference Centre

Healthcare Events are pleased to announce the Junior Doctor Led Clinical Audit Conference. This event will incorporate the Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year competition and we would like to invite submissions from entrants who wish to submit their clinical audit for review.

The Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year competition is sponsored by the Clinical Audit Support Centre and successful entrants will be invited to attend the conference and display their work via a poster exhibition.

All entries will receive a 25% reduction on the Junior Doctor Delegate Fee for the conference. The winning entry will be selected by the judging panel and announced at the conference.

The winning entry will receive:

- Have the submission published in Clinical Audit Today journal
- be asked to present their audit at the National Clinical Audit conference in February 2011
- A free delegate place at this conference, the Clinical Audit 2011 conference and a further Healthcare Events conference of their choosing

All submissions should be emailed to clare@healthcare-events.co.uk. Submission guidelines are located on page 2. The deadline for submission of abstracts is 27th September 2010 (we cannot accept any abstracts after this date).

If you have any questions, please email clare@healthcare-events.co.uk or phone 0208 541 1399

Best Regards

GUIDELINES FOR THE COMPETITION

All submissions should include the following:

- All submissions should ideally be completed on the attached form, if you cannot use the form we ask that you use the suggested subheadings
- All should include: title, author details (name, job title, organisation), 3 bullet points summarising the presentation, objectives of work described, methods used, results and/or expected benefits, conclusions
- Maximum 1000 words (longer submissions will not be reviewed)
- Submission will be reviewed based on criteria as follows: contribution to clinical audit and improvement, knowledge and practice, originality, completeness, comprehensiveness, clarity of objectives, methods, results and conclusions.
- Format: when emailing please name your word document “Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year and your name/name of first author”

Guidance for the Clinical Audit Project that you submit:-

1. The project must be current – i.e. carried out in 2008-10
2. It must be a clinical audit (as opposed to research/other quality assurance work)
3. The topic selected is appropriate and relevant
4. The audit is focused on improving patient care
5. The criteria and standards are clearly stated, with reference to evidence
6. The sample size is sufficient to generate meaningful results
7. The project follows appropriate clinical audit methodology
8. Results must be clearly displayed
9. Recommendations and action plans have been produced
10. Preferably: a re-audit has been undertaken and the benefits/outcomes of the project can be quantified

Submissions can relate to small-scale local audits up to regional and national projects. Projects may be based on pre-existing audit templates (e.g, national audits, NICE guidelines, etc) or may relate to new projects where methodology for the audit project has been developed by local stakeholders.

Failure to follow the above may result in the submission being rejected, regardless of content.

All abstracts should be emailed to clare@healthcare-events.co.uk
Deadline for submission 27th September 2010 and accepted authors will be notified of receipt.
