

JACOB BUCKLAND

HEAD OF BUSINESS TRANSFORMATION
10T08

Jacob is focused on steering NHS Trusts through the unprecedented challenges of the last year. He is helping Operations Departments, Patient Relations, Urgent Care and other divisions transform and efficiently manage their booking systems for blood and Covid-19 testing, vaccinations, and more.

Jacob is one of the UK's leading consultants on how NHS Trusts are driving efficiencies and improving ROI through patient booking systems. He navigates healthcare providers through the critical transformation and introduction of booking systems, resulting in reduced cost and eliminated risk.
