

Ofrah Muflahi
MSc BSc RN

Ofrah's passion for nursing started at the age of fourteen when she noted the care being provided by nursing staff who looked after her unwell mother.

Ofrah has more than 20+ years' experience working in various nursing roles and started her nursing career as a health care assistant. Her knowledge, skills and experience spans across paediatrics, community nursing, quality governance and improvement. She was the only Mary Seacole Leadership Award winner in 2008 leading on a project to meet the health care needs of children and young adults with sickle cell and thalassaemia.

She has held board roles in multiple national charities and is a Non-Executive Director in the NHS and the Professional Lead for Nursing Support Workers at the Royal College of Nursing. She is passionate about her role in order to deliver excellent care, ethical leadership and innovation and has an MSc in Healthcare Management and Policy from the University of Birmingham.
